A Sure Start Children's Centre

Hand Me Down Heaven

Do you have any baby clothes, toys or equipment that you no longer want or need?

Why not offer your "nearly new" items to other Barleyfields parents?

Ask at the Children's Centre office for a form.

Hand Me Down Heaven is coordinated by Barleyfields Children's Centre in response to an idea and discussion at the Parent Forum.

All items offered should be in good condition.

Barleyfields Children's Centre does not recommend or endorse any product and is not responsible for the safety of any items. Parents must undertake suitable checks to ensure that items are safe for them and their children.

Barleyfields does not take any fee or percentage of the money.

- Fill in a form with details of the item – there may or may not be a small sum of money involved.
- The form is displayed on the board.
- When a parent expresses an interest in the item we will arrange for it to be handed over and for the money (if any) to be collected and passed to the seller.
